LABOR NEWS.

Typographical Union No. 6 has been suspended from the C. F. U., as has been the United States Licensed Masters and Pilots' Association. This action was taken at the last meeting of the body after a roll-call of the unions which are in arrears with their dues had been read. All other definquent unions have been given thirty days in which to settle their accounts or they will also be suspended.

A reduction in wages has been reported by Delegate Pallas, of the Pattermakers' Union. He said that the Board of Wages in Washington sent out circulars every six months asking employeers what they paid their union moulders, pattern-makers and other trades. When these were submitted it is esid the board struck an average and in that way are paying its men in the Brookiyn Navy-Tard a price far below that which they have been receiving.

The Plano Makers Union will hold a meeting at Peppers's Hall, Sixty-seventh street and Third avenue, at which delegates to the annual convention of the Plano and Organ Makers' International Union will be elected. National Organizer Charles Dood, of Chicago, will be present. At the last meeting of the union a member who had been suspended was reinstated upon payment of $15.

The strikes which were instituted some time ago by the Metal Polishers', Brass Workers' and Chandeller Workers' Unions of this city are still on. All the unions claim that they will hold their men out until the demand for a nine hour workday is granted by the contractors and employers.
